

Actions for “Latter-day Prophets” demonstrated by Jared Day at the Pat Graham Primary Workshop
1/17/2015 at Day Murray Music in Murray, Utah

Joseph Smith – Book of Mormon

- Hold up a Book of Mormon

Brigham Young – Ride

- He rode across the plains

John Taylor – Point to watch

- The watch that saved his life in Carthage Jail

Wilfred Woodruff – Trumpet

- He dedicated many temples, and they used trumpets to celebrate

Lorenzo Snow – Rain

- There was a drought. He promised the Saints that it would rain if they would pay their tithing

Joseph F. Smith – Hula

- Served a mission in Hawaii

Heber J. Grant – swing a bat

- Was a terrible baseball player. He practiced very hard and made the baseball team.

George Albert Smith – Hand shake

- He shook hands with everybody

David O. McKay – O

- He loved to play marbles as a boy. The O represents a marble. When he received his patriarchal blessing, he was told he would become much more than just a marble player.

Joseph Fielding Smith – Kiss

- He loved the children.

Harold B. Lee – Piano

- He was a fine pianist

Spencer W. Kimball – Milk a cow

- Was raised on a farm

Ezra Taft Benson – Scout salute

- He was a huge advocate of the scouting program

Howard W. Hunter – Draw a heart in the sky

- Had a big heart – was very loving

Gordon B. Hinckley – Airplane

- Traveled the world.

Thomas S. Monson – Draw heart chest

- Service oriented